

Young Adult Educational Award

Presented by the Wisconsin Holstein Association's Young Adult Committee

The Wisconsin Holstein Association's Young Adult Committee will be offering 4, $500 awards to attend an educational event. Educational events include, but are not limited to: Young Dairy Leaders Institute (YDLI), World Dairy Expo, and World Ag Expo.

Eligibility for Awards

1. Applicant must be a member in good standing of the Wisconsin Holstein Association at the time of application.
2. Applicants should indicate on this application which program or event the award will be used for.
3. For programs such as YDLI, proof of acceptance must be provided.
4. Award can only be received once per individual.
5. Young Distinguished Breeder Award recipients are not eligible as they will have already received a $500 YAC sponsored award.
6. If an award is given and the recipient is unable to attend or does not fulfill the program requirements, the individual is expected to return the funds to the Young Adult Committee.
7. This award is intended for those whose main source of income is from the farm.
8. Applicant should be age 21 to 45 as of January 1, 2012.

Application

Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

Address: _____ City: _____

State: _____ Zip: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____

Scholarship to be used for: _____

Answer each of the following questions in less than 200 words (per question) on a separate sheet of paper.

1. Explain your involvement with the Wisconsin Holstein Association and/or Young Adult Committee.
2. What is your role on your dairy farm and/or your involvement with Registered Holsteins?
3. What do you hope to gain from your participation in the educational program you listed above?
4. In what way do you feel your participation from the above program could benefit your membership to the Wisconsin Holstein Association and the Young Adult Committee?

Please submit completed application to WHA via email: chrisw@wisholsteins.com, fax: 608-356-6312 or mail: 902 8th Ave, Baraboo, WI 53913 by November 15, 2011.