

Young Adult Educational Award

Presented by the Wisconsin Holstein Association's Young Adult Committee

The Wisconsin Holstein Association's Young Adult Committee will be offering up to four $500 awards to attend an educational event. Educational events include, but are not limited to: Young Dairy Leaders Institute (YDLI), World Dairy Expo, and World Ag Expo.

Eligibility for Awards

1. Applicant must be a member in good standing of the Wisconsin Holstein Association at the time of application.
2. Applicants should indicate on this application which program or event the award will be used for.
3. For programs such as YDLI, proof of acceptance must be provided.
4. Award can only be received once per individual.
5. Young Distinguished Breeder Award recipients are not eligible as they will have already received a $500 YAC sponsored award.
6. Funds will be reimbursed to the award winner upon submission of receipt to WHA within one year of the date receiving the award.
7. Applicant should be age 21 to 45 as of January 1, 2024.

Application

Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

Address: _____ City: _____

State: _____ Zip: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____

Scholarship to be used for: _____

Answer each of the following questions in less than 200 words (per question) on a separate sheet of paper.

1. Explain nominee/applicant's involvement with the Wisconsin Holstein Association and/or Young Adult Committee.
2. What is his or her/your role on your dairy farm and/or your involvement with Registered Holsteins?
3. What would the nominee/applicant gain from participation in the educational program listed above?
4. In what way do you feel the nominee's/your participation in the above program could benefit their membership to the Wisconsin Holstein Association and the Young Adult Committee?

Please submit completed application to WHA via email to lauraw@wisholsteins.com or mailed to 902 8th Ave, Baraboo, WI 53913 by February 1, 2024.